1. Enforced physical distancing. This means no spotting during class. Your instructors will guide you through progressions to ensure your practice is safe and within your ability.

6. Mental health support. We understand pole may be a part of your self care routine, but we are not mental health professionals. While we are open to having conversations with our students and providing as much emotional support as we can, if you need support for your mental health and wellness, please contact us and members of our team can connect you with resources.
